

part of the proceeds necessary to build a new home for the boys that will be subject to a trust, is that correct?

A Correct.

Q Will you tell the Court what your intentions are, briefly, in regards to this?

A To sell the present home and use the proceeds to build another home at another location, that home likewise to be in trust.

Q I believe you have purchased other land that you own?

A I have purchased the land.

Q And is it or is it not your desire to give to the trust so much of the land as necessary to build a home?

A Correct.

Q You paid, I believe, $ 6850 for this land, is that right?

A That's right.

Q And whatever it takes to put the home there you are willing to deed to the trust matter?

A That's right.

Q Not charging the trust anything for the land?

A That's right.

Q Then your only request of the Court in this petition is to permit you to sell the home?

A Yes.

Q And substitute the funds in another home plus whatever trust is left over for the boys, subject to the same trust?

A Yes.

Q (The Court) Do you feel that would be for the best interests of the boys?

A Yes, I do.
